

CME Convenor report

- The theme of the CME Proceedings of IANCON-2020 which was to be held at Bangalore was “MOVEMENT DISORDERS – Indian Perspective” approved by the executive committee and by the General body meeting held in Hyderabad conference.
- 26 chapters to be authored by seasoned senior authors are selected for the publication and among which 9 topics were selected for platform presentation during the CME proceedings of IANCON 2020. All the contributors have put in lot of their time and efforts. All authors are experts in their subject areas and are writing authoritative reviews
- I would like to convey my sincere thanks to all the contributors who have accepted.
- Prof. Dr. J.M.K. Murthy, President Elect, IAN, and Chairman, CME Committee, provides me with all the required guidance and I am immensely grateful to him. Prof. Dr. Pramod Pal, President, IAN, and Prof. Gagandeep Singh, Secretary, IAN, are also consulted from time to time and both guided me with their invaluable input. My sincere thanks to Prof. Dr. Pramod Pal, Organizing Chair, Prof. Dr. Ravi Yadav, Organizing Secretary, and the local organizing committee of IANCON 2020-Bangalore, for their kind gesture in accepting the expenditure.
- The publication services were done by Wolters Kluwer (India) Private Limited during my tenure and I thank Ms. Sangeetha Parthasarathy and her team for the excellent publication services and for their association with the Indian Academy of Neurology.
- This year the Wolter Kluwer have quoted to Rs. 595 /- per copy in the pre covid era. The royalty amount of 10% shall be paid to the Indian Academy of Neurology account. Ebook version shall be being made available online to IAN members in 2021. I shall get a fresh quote now and share it since the printing shall be in 2021, revised quote shall apply.
- 1500 copies are ordered for printing and circulation. I sincerely thank Dr. Nirmal Surya Treasurer, IAN for his role in promptly paying the publishers with proper TDS during my tenure and also thank Prof. Subash Kaul and Dr. S Sita Jayalakshmi for generously buying all printed copies last year and distributing them to the delegates.
- The CME session of IANCON 2020 will be held in IANCON 2021 and will have two CME sessions of 4 hours each. The Reviews in Neurology of 2020 and 2021 will both be released in IANCON 2021.
- During my tenure I have done three reviews MYELIN IN 2018, STROKE IN 2019 and presently doing MOVEMENT DISORDERS -INDIAN PERSPECTIVE in 2020 to be released in 2021 IANCON
- I thank everyone involved, contributed and participated in the CME during my tenure.
- I sincerely congratulate and convey my best wishes to my successor, Prof. Dr. P. N. Sylaja for carrying forward the activities of the CME in IANCON.

- My hearty thanks to everyone in the executive committee during my tenure as the convenor.
